Weekly News 06/04/2023

Today in Worship: Holy Trinity Sunday • Gen. 1:1-2:4; Acts 2:14a, 22-36; Matt. 28:16-20 • On Holy Trinity Sunday we ponder the mystery of how He has revealed Himself as the “Three-in-One” (Triune) God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Ours is the living God; gracious and merciful; all-powerful and eternal; with a love for all people beyond what we could ever imagine or deserve. We worship Him and devote ourselves to Him with all that we are. Knowing this about God doesn’t just lead us to a richer understanding of what God is like, but we also recognize how God has been active in meeting our greatest need through Jesus. And our gracious, ever-living God, continues to work today as He has given us His Spirit and included us in His mission to connect others to Jesus in their time of need.

We welcome Rev. Dr. Rick Armstrong as he proclaims God’s Word today. Pastor Ken and Peg are traveling as he does a renewal of vows ceremony.
