Today: My Neighbor, the Foreigner • Matthew 15:21-28; 1 Kings 8:17-43; 1 Peter 1:17-25 • How do you and I receive the person that is not like us? The tendency in human behavior seems to reflect "birds of a feather" more readily than it tends to exhibit diversity. Jesus was approached by a Canaanite woman seeking relief for her daughter; the conversation makes clear that He is being approached by a foreigner, an outsider. Although the woman's faith is evident, it is puzzling that Jesus does not immediately grant her request. Ultimately, what is Jesus teaching us today about who is welcome in God's family and who rightfully has a seat at the table of the Master?

Summer "Back to Basics" Sermon Series: "Who Is My Neighbor?" • It is one of the most fundamental tenets of the Christian faith. God has commanded us to love—first and foremost, to love Him above all things, and then to love our neighbor as ourselves. It all sounds so simple, but it isn't always easy. The question we ask ourselves this summer as we go back to basics is, "Who is our neighbor?" And what does love for our neighbor look like in the world in which we live? And what makes that love so extraordinary?
