And this is the confidence that we have toward him,
that if we ask anything
according to his will, he

PURPOSE OF THE 50 DAYS OF PRAYER

Since the epidemic, Prince of Peace / Principe de Paz has been expanding its mission in Worship, Discipleship, and Outreach. However, it is falling behind in supporting the mission financially. While this is an organizational problem, it is primarily a spiritual challenge and a wonderful opportunity to repent and renew our trust in the Lamb of God. He is worthy to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise! Revelation 5:12

Therefore, let us come before the mercy seat of God and to the Lamb bringing our prayer, study and devotion asking God to guide and direct our mission to His glory and for the sake of all His peoples.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

There are many challenges that face churches in our society today: remaining faithful to Jesus and what He has called us to be; staying in touch with the needs of each other and the people in our changing neighborhoods—all so people can experience touch of Jesus, giving them what they need most; investing everything now as we pray that God's reign comes among us, yet creating ministry that is sustainable, able to grow and thrive for generations to come.

Is this realistic? I believe that, yes, it is, if we allow God to give us eyes of faith that focus squarely on Jesus, the Lamb of God who is worthy of all glory and honor and praise. We bow before the Lamb and ask Him to give us courage as He shepherds us wherever He leads. As we trust in the Lord with all our hearts, not leaning on our own understanding, His Spirit moves us to submit to Him in all our ways, and He makes our paths straight (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Let's join together in this adventure of a lifetime, devoting ourselves to Jesus, the Lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world. Through Him we are made into one Prince of Peace, one Príncipe de Paz, giving us a profound sense of opportunity and purpose as we care for this family of faith and as we reach out to the world. As we place our trust in Jesus, we will see Him provide the means for us to accomplish all that He has prepared in advance for us to do (Ephesians 2:10).

Worthy is the Lamb,

The Reverend Ken Green,
Senior Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

Lent is a great time to reflect and meditate on our condition before God and recognize our need of him. Usually during this season, we are encouraged to give up something that we like, like our taste for sweet stuff (chocolate, ice cream, cake) or a routine that we love, like watching our favorite TV show or series on Netflix.

But what if, during Lent, instead of giving up something, we offer up something to God? This is a great challenge. To add something to our daily routines, once we are programmed to follow certain patterns in our lives, becomes challenging and oddly difficult, because we are creatures of habits, and to incorporate a new habit represents a deviation of our day. Well, the challenge that we want to offer you is to engage in 50 days of prayer. What could be better to enhance our spiritual journey than to devote ourselves to our creator? The great news is that you're not alone in this journey. This booklet that we are putting in your hands is the perfect guide to help you walk with the Lord during these fifty days. We will also be reinforcing the ideas and the practice of prayer in small groups, where we can share our experiences.

So, I invite you to take up this challenge of prayer, and as one people of God at Prince of Peace, lift up our hands and voices to connect with the only ONE that knows us perfectly, our God and Father through his son Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

REFLECTION ON THE THEME

John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! (John 1: 29)

God’s ways are usually contrary to the way we’re trained to think. Leaders usually come from prominent families and go to the best schools. Who would think that the Messiah would be born into a poor family supported by a father who did manual labor in a backwater place like Nazareth? The whole scenario is so contrary to the way we think about power.

In Bible times when a person sinned, they would take a lamb to the temple to sacrifice. “To be called a Lamb of God means that God gave Jesus to be killed like a lamb for our sins so we could live forever.” The majority of Old Testament passages that mention “lamb” refer to a sacrifice (85 out of 96). As a nation, Israel began its history by putting lamb’s blood on the doorposts and lintels of each house. The death angel took the lives of all Egypt’s firstborn but passed over the houses that had lamb’s blood on the door. To this day, Jews all over the world celebrate Passover.

The entire Old Testament can be summed up with one question, “Where is the lamb?” A pivotal point in Jewish history came when Father Abraham took Isaac up the mountain to offer a sacrifice. Abraham knew God had promised to make him the father of many nations, yet God had commanded him to sacrifice his only son by Sarah. When Isaac asked about the lamb, Abraham assured him that God would provide the lamb (Genesis 22:6-8).

The priests in the temple at Jerusalem sacrificed a lamb in the morning and evening every day (Exodus 29:38). For hundreds of years, Jews brought lambs to the temple as sacrifices for their sins. They kept coming back year after year because no lamb could take away all their sin.

For Christians, the Passover points to a greater reality. In the person of the Lord Jesus Christ, God brought the perfect sacrifice that John proclaimed: “Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!” (John 1:29).

The prophet Isaiah foresaw the Messiah’s sacrifice when he wrote: “He was oppressed and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth” (Isaiah 53:7).

Think about this: All the sacrificial lambs offered in the Old Testament point to Jesus Christ.

WHY PRAY

Prayer is talking to God. The God to whom we pray is the all-powerful Creator, all knowing and exists in the eternal dimension. He hears all prayers. He is able to intervene in our lives. He is a loving Father, so He cares about our needs and concerns. And He is the all-knowing Lord of the universe, so trustworthy to say “yes” when it is best and “no” when what we request would cause more harm than good.

There are many kinds of prayers: public prayers, private prayers, memorized prayers, spontaneous prayers, spoken prayers, silent prayers, written prayers, sung prayers, and many more. All of them put words into four basic ideas.

Thanksgiving – Someone said a sad day for an atheist is when he feels deeply grateful but has no one to thank! Christians know that God is the source of all of life’s blessings. So, we use prayer to say “Thanks!” for what we receive. Since it is impossible to be truly thankful and discontent at the same moment, such prayers lift our spirits by reminding us that, “Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights.” (James 1:17)

Confession – We all mess up. Deep down, we know it. That’s why we feel sorry when we’ve done something wrong or failed to do what is right. Confession is the act of admitting our guilt, regrets, and confusion to the One who wants to help us make it right or move on. We join the rest of the human race in saying “God, have mercy on me, a sinner.” (Luke 18:13) And He will.

Requests – “God, help me!” is a very basic version of the third category of prayer. We need, so we ask. Be it provision, intervention, protection, or any of a million other requests, we believe God can do or provide something we can’t. In the process, we take seriously the words of scripture, “You do not have, because you do not ask God.” Of course, we can make misguided requests. That’s why the scriptures add a caution. “When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.” (James 4:2-3) God is not a genie granting wishes, but a Father who takes seriously the sincere requests of His children.

Worship – Prayer is also one of the ways we worship God. To “worship” means to “ascribe worth.” In other words, we give credit where credit is due. If the history of humanity tells us anything it is that we are hard-wired to worship someone or something – be it an idol made of stone or a celebrity “idol” with a million social media followers. Worship keeps us sane because it reminds us of the fundamental reality of the universe: that there is only one God, and we are not Him.

Prince of Peace – Principe de Paz is praying because we depend on God to renew our love for all and show us the way forward for a sustainable and relevant mission.

WEEK ONE – MARCH 2-8, 2025

Word:

The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is the one I meant when I said, ‘A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.’ John 1: 29-30

Reflection:

The people who heard these words from John the Baptist had a long tradition of sacrificing a lamb without blemish as an atonement for sin. We no longer offer animal sacrifice because Jesus was indeed the ultimate sacrifice of the sins of all people. The sin of the whole world, past and future, our sin, ALL our sin is taken away. We are forgiven for our disobedience and willfulness. We are free from guilt, shame, and the entrenched need to be good enough. We are free to laugh and to give a true and willing sacrifice of ourselves for the Lamb who was slain has begun His reign, Alleluia.

Prayer:

What words of praise do you have for Lamb today?

Who do you want to pray for today?

Can you ask Spirit to empower you to know what you can sacrifice freely?

Please pray for the Ministry of Sunday worship at Prince of Peace – Principe de Paz, for the staff and all the volunteers that seek to lead our worship with prophetic wisdom and in truth.

DAILY PRAYER PROCESS

1. Read the passage and think of a specific application to your life today.
2. Read the passage once more and pray with -Praise to God, -Contrition in your heart, and Requests for yourself and others.

WEEK TWO – MARCH 9-15, 2025

Word:

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, saying: “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!” Revelation 5: 13

Reflection:

Can you imagine what it will be like? The Apostle John was “taken up” for a short time to behold the sights and sounds of God’s kingdom triumphant. Because of Jesus, the Lamb of God, we will not just visit heaven we will join in an unending liturgy declaring that the Lamb is indeed worthy of our worship and praise. What a joy to know that we can begin that worship right now and the Spirit will empower our imaginations to behold the Lamb.

DATE	REFERENCE	REFLECT AND PRAY - WORD FOR THE DAY
Sunday March 9	Revelation 5:11-12	Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain. To receive power and riches and wisdom, And strength and honor and glory and blessing!"

March 11	1 John 5:14-15	And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked him.
March 12	Psalms 33:20-22	We wait in hope for the LORD; he is our help and our shield. In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name. May your unfailing love be with us, LORD, even as we put our hope in you.
March 13	Psalms 130:5-6	I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in his word, I put my hope. I wait for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning.
March 14	Matthew 6:21	For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
March 15	Psalms 27:14	Wait for the LORD; be strong and take heart and wait for the LORD.

WEEK THREE – MARCH 16-22, 2025

Word:

I looked again. I saw a huge crowd, too huge to count. Everyone was there—all nations and tribes, all races and languages. And they were standing, dressed in white robes and waving palm branches, standing before the Throne and the Lamb and heartily singing Salvation to our God on his Throne! Salvation to the Lamb! All who were standing around the Throne—Angels, Elders, Animals—fell on their faces before the Throne and worshiped God, singing: Oh, Yes! The blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving, The honor and power and strength, To our God forever and ever and ever! Oh, Yes! Revelation 7:9-12 The Message (MSG)

Reflection:

Think of a dear friend or relative who died in the faith. What do you remember most about them?

Now imagine your homecoming. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, you are in the throne room of the Lamb. You are singing - Oh, Yes! The blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving, The honor and power and strength, To our God forever and ever and ever! Oh, Yes!

You are one in the huge crowd yet you don't feel crowded. Everyone is looking toward the glorious light of the Lamb. Then you notice your dear friend and they look at you with a smile that explains and forgives everything about your relationship. And they turn with you and look to the Lamb. You are overwhelmed with the knowledge that you are now in God's family with people of all nations and tribes because of the Lamb of God.

Prayer:

Who do you want to thank God for today? Who especially needs your prayers?

Please pray for the youth and family ministries. Pray for the POP Kids, the teenagers going to the Lutheran Youth Gathering and Youth Bible class.

DAILY PRAYER PROCESS

1. Read the passage and think of a specific application to your life today.
2. Read the passage once more and pray with -Praise to God, -Contrition in your heart, and - Requests for yourself and others.

DATE	REFERENCE	REFLECT AND PRAY - WORD FOR THE DAY

March 22	Romans 6:23	For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

WEEK 4 - MARCH 23-29, 2025

Word:

Since you call on a Father who judges each person's work impartially, live out your time as foreigners here in reverent fear. For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your ancestors, but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.

1 Peter 1:17-19

Reflection:

Hey, I don't have, "An empty way of life." And I'm not ready to blame it on my parents. I'm doing all right. Or am I? If my ancestors and I are judged by an impartial righteous Father, I must admit I don't measure up. No matter what my status in life, the amount of money in the bank, or even my national citizenship, I am not redeemable. And praise to the Father God who sent His son the Lamb to shed his blood for me and for all of us foreigners.

Prayer:

With an open heart, speak with your heavenly Father about your disobedience, your willfulness and your inability to measure up to His impartial judgment.

With a joyful heart, use new words to give Him thanks and praise as you acknowledge the sacrifice of the Lamb of God.

Pray for the outreach ministries of the Centro de Paz para la Vida – Peace Center for Life. Health Fair, ESOL classes, Food Pantry, Back to School, Angel Tree, and Thanksgiving Meals.

DATE	REFERENCE	REFLECT AND PRAY - WORD FOR THE DAY
Sunday March 23	John 17:17	Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth.
March 24	John 12:3-5,7	Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected, "Why wasn't this perfume sold, and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages." "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial."
March 25	Ephesians 6:10	Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil.
March 26	Revelation 13:8	All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.
March 27	Psalms 91:1-2	Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."
March 28	Jeremiah 29:11	For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.
March 29	Mark 12 46-47	I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness. "If anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge that person. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world."

WEEK FIVE – MARCH 30 TO APRIL 5, 2025

Word:

He was oppressed and He was afflicted, Yet He opened not His mouth; He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, So He opened not His mouth. Isaiah 53:7

Reflection:

How do we describe the Lamb of God? He is the Son of God, the Word made flesh, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the Alpha and Omega and the list of names goes on. . . Isaiah was inspired to tell the profound irony of our Savior suffering in silence. What would He say? What could He say to explain the eternal plan to rescue us from sin, death and all that is evil? What human could comprehend the profoundness of His love for us.

Prayer:

What is on your heart today? Who are you worried about? Bring your thoughts to the Lamb who knows your suffering and celebrates your joy.

Please pray that all who worship at Prince of Peace – Principe de Paz would read and listen to the Bible. Also, pray for the Sunday School, Bible Study Groups, and their teachers.

DAILY PRAYER PROCESS

1. Read the passage and think of a specific application to your life today.
2. Read the passage once more and pray with -Praise to God, -Contrition in your heart, and - Requests for yourself and others.

March 31	Isaiah 58:6-7a	"Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter."
April 1	Galatians 6:7.	Do not be fooled: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.
April 2	Isaiah 53:7	He was oppressed and He was afflicted, Yet He opened not His mouth; He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, So He opened not His mouth.
April 3	Psalms 91: 14-15	"Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."
April 4	Ephesians 3:14-19	For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,
April 5	John 1:1	In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God

WEEK SIX – APRIL 6-12, 2025

Word:

Likewise Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. Romans 8:26 -

Reflection:

Perhaps the deepest and more earnest prayers cannot be put into words. The Spirit of God living in us, enables us to still communicate the longings of our souls. What a wonderful comfort to know that our Father, God hears our greatest joys and our saddest moments without us vocalizing them. And because of The Lamb of God, the Father takes action to help us.

Prayer:

How are you feeling today? Try not to explain it. Just experience it. Perhaps your body is feeling something that you can't describe. God knows and understand you completely.

Please pray for the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, the Angels who crochet items for Winnie Palmer Hospital children, and the Prayer Shawl Ministry. Pray for all those who prepare the fellowship meals like the Spanish Mother's Day meal and the meals for funerals.

April 12	Acts 1:14	All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

WEEK SEVEN – APRIL 13-20, 2025

Word:

"Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him." Romans 6:8-11

Reflection:

"I know that my Redeemer lives. What comfort this sweet sentence gives." The hymns of Easter bring celebrations of intense joy. Christ's resurrection is the quintessential event of the Bible and the foundation of our faith. Death is no longer the final chapter of our life. Because of the resurrection, we do not die alone passing into the unknown, we die with Christ to be alive with Him forever.

Prayer:

As you celebrate another Easter, what are your thoughts of praise and thanks to the risen Christ Jesus?

Please pray for all who are preparing and leading our Easter worship celebrations. The preachers, the musicians, the choirs, the readers, the ushers, the greeters, those who print the bulletin and those who prepare the coffee and refreshments. Pray for all those who will worship with you.
